HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

There will soon be sixty divisions in Allegheny county, Pa. The Ancient Order is enjoying a steady growth in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

The proposed new insurance law is now being discussed at many division meetings.

Division 11 of Utica banqueted its members following the business session last week.

Division 4 meets Monday night and not again until after the Fourth. A good attendance is looked for.

A new division has been started at Fond du Lac, Wis. Seventy-five became members at the initial meeting.

Mrs. Mary McWhorter, chairlady of Irish history, has been spending the week on a visit to the auxiliaries in Minnesota.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Syracuse turned the last meeting into a euchar party for the benefit of the House of Providence.

The Hibernians of Virginia are already at work preparing for the national convention to be held at Norfolk next year.

There should be a prompt response to the appeal of John O'Dea for co-operation in his compilation of the history of the order.

Milwaukee Hibernians had with them this week the Gaelic League envoys, who have been giving exhibitions of Irish art and industry.

The Hibernians of Keene, N. H., have an imposing monument that marks the burial place of deceased members in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Mrs. John Arthur, State President of the Indiana Ladies' Auxiliary, last week visited Chicago, Gary and Hammond in the interest of the organization.

National Treasurer Maloney has been visiting in Minneapolis and St. Paul. Kentucky would appreciate a visit from any member of the National Board.

Division 5 of Cincinnati is growing to big proportions. At every meeting for some time past at least a dozen names have been proposed for membership.

Division 1 transacted its business quickly Tuesday night and adjourned to the outing given the children of St. Patrick's school at Spring Bank Park.

For some time past there has been a forward movement in Pittsburgh that has met with phenomenal success. A number of divisions have trebled their membership.

A fine portrait of Father Thomas F. Reilly, pastor of St. Mary's church in Dover, N. H., has been presented to the Sacred Heart Convent in that city by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Upon invitation of Rev. Brother Andrew, President of the Christian Brothers' College at Portland, Ore., the Hibernians were present to listen to the Irish history examinations.

Thirty-five members of the Dover Ladies' Auxiliary went to Somersworth, N. H., to assist at a big initiation, which was followed by a fine luncheon and very pleasant social hour.

The meeting of Division 1 on Tuesday night was well attended and very interesting. This was most pleasing to the officers, who have been faithful in the performance of their duties.

When County President Kilgallen took hold of the reins in Pittsburgh there were only thirty-eight active divisions in Allegheny county. The addition of twenty-two under his administration speaks for itself.

The purchase in the summer of 1912, and the Oil King's money blocked possession a week later. The matter was taken immediately into the courts, but the first decision was not reached until well into the fall, and judgment on the appeal was not secured until now—almost a year later. The defendant, Joseph Cusani, who attempted to sell to Rockefeller, and has at the present moment $10,000 of oil greenbacks plus $25 of the Mission Society's crumb gatherings, seems still inclined to hope for victory, and this disposition, if carried to the point of another appeal, will also mean delay in settlement. The figure ($29,000) which the summary is supposed to secure is considerably exaggerated. Half this amount, plus all charges, will, however, be expected, and is confidently anticipated.

TWIN CITY LEAGUE.

Large attendances continue the rule at the Catholic League ball games on Sunday morning. Their popularity being due in a great measure to their strict observance of the league's slogan of clean ball. The three leaders held their positions by winning last Sunday, all by winning easy games, the same three being scheduled to meet the three tail-enders tomorrow, and a reversal of form may be looked for. The schedule is as follows: Bruins vs. Spring Bank, Champions vs. Hepburns, Kentucky Oaks vs. Athletics and the Shamrocks vs. Cadets. The standing to date:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Champions	6	2	.750
Spring Banks	5	2	.714
Shamrocks	4	3	.571
Kentucky Oaks	4	4	.500
Athletics	3	4	.429
Cadets	3	4	.429
Hepburns	2	4	.333
Bruins	2	6	.250

ORDINATION AT OLDENBURG.

St. Anthony's day, June 13, was made a great occasion at the convent of the Franciscan fathers at Oldenburg, Ind. Right Rev. Joseph Chartrand, Bishop of Indianapolis, conferred sacred orders on a large number of Franciscan clerics at the Church of the Holy Family and ordained to the priesthood Rev. Bonifacio Klinger, Rev. Joachim Markus, Rev. Valarian Renier, Rev. Erasmus Dooley, Rev. Sebastian Erbacher, Rev. Cuthbert Kalt, Rev. Othmar Studener, Rev. Cajetan Elshoff, Rev. Frovin Stautebeck.

FAMILY RECORD.

A most useful book, the Family Record, has just been issued by the John P. Dalsiden Company of Chicago, the purpose of which is to place a marriage certificate and genealogy tables in every Catholic home, to be treasured as the family record. This book, properly filled out, requires but ordinary intelligence to record all the respective family trees comprising not only the present generation but also of our ancestors. Space is reserved for important occurrences of the family, achievements, professions, etc., tending to bring to the immediate family knowledge of their relationship, which otherwise would remain unknown after the death of a certain member of the family. Its cost ranges from fifty cents to $1, and copies may be secured from the publishers or the Rogers Church Goods Company of this city.

BROOK NO DELAY.

Our new Foreign Mission Seminary seems destined to win its now famous "Rockefeller" suit, but its Directors did well not to wait for the legal settlement before making a definite start. The estate at Pocantico Hills

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

James McDowd, national teacher at Droghdaire, has been appointed Postmaster in that town.

The people of Tempo have formed an electric light company, and in future the village will be lit electrically.

Very Rev. Canon Lee has completed all arrangements in connection with the building of new schools at Abbeyfeale and Meenikilly.

It is estimated that the damage done at the Roscrea Catholic church by the serious fire amounts to $16,000. The loss is covered by insurance.

The Tuillamore Urban Council, by nine votes to four, has decided to submit to the local government a scheme for the electric lighting of Tuillamore.

Mrs. Heffernan, seventy, a native of Glenmore, died suddenly while entering Tuillamore Catholic church, where a mission is being conducted by Jesuit fathers.

The Dunshaughlin District Council has decided to serve notice to quit on a number of tenants of laborers' cottages because of their refusal to get married.

John Fahy, of Gorr, who had been recently evicted, has been returned to Galway Assizes on a charge of having knocked down walls on the farm, which is under police protection. Ball was refused.

The Most Rev. Dr. Fennelly has been empowered by the Holy See to revive and add to the Cathedral Chapter three of the ancient canons of the diocese of Emly, viz., Lattin, Doon and Killenellick.

Sympathetic references were made at Navan Urban Council to the death of Thomas Gerrard, at Glibstown, who always took a deep interest in the welfare of the town. A resolution of condolence with his relatives was passed.

At Wicklow Quarter Sessions, before Judge Barry, Robert Wilson, an old man of no fixed residence, pleaded guilty to breaking into the Catholic church twenty times previously, and was now sentenced to five years' penal servitude.

Miss Elizabeth Connolly, of Clifden, was at a meeting of the Galway County Council unanimously elected nurse in charge of the Tuberculosis Dispensary at Galway on the proposition of P. J. O'Malley, seconded by J. M. Lyden.

The death occurred in Cork of the Very Rev. Michael James Moore, O. P., who was in failing health for some time past. He was a member of an old Cork family, was born in 1855, and joining the Dominican order, made many friends all over the country.

Most Rev. Dr. Mangan, in accepting the position of patron of the North Kerry Agricultural Society and forwarding a subscription, says he is a member of sincere pleasure to him to find that cattle shows and plowing matches were being revived by the people themselves.

The death has taken place at Mullingar of Mrs. Isabella Kearney, wife of Dr. A. J. Kearney, surgeon at Westmeath County Infirmary. Mrs. Kearney, who has been ailing for a considerable time, was a sister-in-law of J. P. Dowdall, Chairman of Westmeath County Council.

MILWAUKEE TODAY.

Harry Clark's Brewers will begin a three-game series with the Colonels this afternoon and the fans will be sure to give them a more critical inspection than on their first trip, when everyone predicted a tail-end position for the team and could not see Milwaukee at all, but they upset all predictions by being a contender for first place ever since. From a disinterested standpoint the visitors have only a shade on Louisville in the pitching staff, their infield inferior to ours, and only one first class man in the outfield, that being Chappelle, and if our pitchers come around Louisville should easily beat out Milwaukee and be the contender with Columbus instead.

MILWAUKEE CONVENTION.

As will be seen from the tentative programme just issued, the Milwaukee convention promises to be the greatest ever held by the American Federation of Catholic Societies. It will be in reality a Catholic week and will bring to the beautiful "Cream City on the Lake"—far famed for its cooling breezes—a galaxy of noted prelates, scholars, editors, business and working men and women who are in the forefront rank of the Catholic activities in the United States. Archbishop Messmer gives assurance that none will regret coming to this Federation convention.

EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

Although it was first anticipated that the attendance from the North and East at the tenth annual meeting of the Catholic Educational Association at New Orleans on June 10 would be very large on account of the distance, the reports now at hand indicate that nearly every prominent Catholic institution of the entire country will be represented. A number of educators will leave New York at noon on Wednesday, June 25, and make the trip by boat. It is probable that the meeting held under Archbishop Blenk will be the most representative one that has been held by the Association, and the problems to be studied are of a very practical nature.

PRIEST HEADS STATE BOARD.

At a recent meeting of the Colorado State Board of Charities and Corrections, Rev. William O'Ryan, pastor of St. Leo church, Denver, was elected President of the organization to succeed Mrs. James Williams. Father O'Ryan has been a member of the board, having been appointed by Gov. Shafroth.
